Reasons for allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The present invention is directed to an information reproduction apparatus and method that perform repetitive reproduction. The independent claims identify the uniquely distinct feature "The repetitive reproduction controlling device instructs the output controlling device to output the decoded image information in the repetition reproduction range and to acquire the decoded image information subsequent to the repetition reproduction range, when the repetitive reproduction controlling device is instructed to begin to perform the repetitive the repetitive reproduction processing by the repetitive reproduction start instructing device, wherein the output controlling device maintains the decoded image information, in the repetition reproduction range in the storage device .even when the decoded image information in the repetition reproduction range has been outputted." The closest prior art Kim (GB 2, 328, 825) either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above underlined limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
